

The image is a detailed site plan of a residential development. It shows four distinct plots, each outlined with a red dashed line. Each plot contains architectural drawings of houses, including floor plans and elevations. The plots are labeled with their respective areas and house areas in black callout boxes. The site is bordered by 'CALLE LOS KOREAN' on the right and 'CALLE LOS ANGELES' at the bottom. Elevation markers are scattered throughout the plan, indicating the ground level and building heights. The overall layout shows a mix of building sizes and green spaces.
